so she's going to be extraordinarily useful

Catalina: sounds perfect for you is she black? me: I've got that meeting tomorrow with True/Slant half English, half black/brown/whatever and then got a meeting with my publisher afterwards to see what he can do regarding project Catalina: ooohh 5:36 PM your familys not gonna like that me: how so?
I dated an African chick once my dad's only racist against males I think
Catalina: they dont care if you have black babies
me: I don't know, his best friend is a gay Mexican democrat for some reason 5:37 PM even though he hates Mexicans and especially gays he's not very good at racism Catalina: too bad but good for you me: no, my mom loves half-breed babies Catalina: go forth and make black babies they are very fashinable me: she thinks girls are prettiest if they are half-black and half-white that was always my plan 5:38 PM this girl doesn't look black and probably isn't any more than 1/4 black anyway looks like undetermined brown girl which is how I like my brown girls Catalina: quadroon or something? me: undetermined yes, and that is what I shall call her Catalina: i forgot what those people are called me: I just got done spending five days straight with a white chick who is crazy formerly a stripper
